Travel speakers

Sometimes listening to music through headphones is just not good enough. For one thing the wires severely inhibit any wild dancing and for another it is difficult to fully enjoy Motorhead's greatest hits unless you are enforcing an ear bashing on everyone in a 10 metre radius. Sample crystal clear sound in your pocket for only £39.99 www.iwantoneofthose.com

Power Pizza laptop case

Protect your precious laptop from attack by disguising it as a greasy cheese-based snack. Designed by Human Beans, this dubious invention uses genuine reinforced pizza boxes to put would-be computer thieves off the scent. £12.99 www.humanbeans.net

Skype Cyberphone

The little USB port rears its multi-functional head again, this time as the recipient of the latest in VoIP technology. Plug in and draw on to anyone who will listen for hours on end from anywhere in the world without spending a penny. Soon everyone in the world will have one and we can all communicate and share our ideas and dreams in one big free global playground where there is no war or famine. Hallelujah.

Swiss Tech Micro-plus 8-in-1 multi-tool

Whether you find yourself stranded in urgent need of a pair of wire cutters, or you just want to while away the long hours dismantling the Corby trouser press in your hotel room, this miniature tool box is indispensable. Includes two sizes of both Phillips and slot screwdrivers, precision pliers (with posi-grip jaws), wire cutters, wire strippers and sheet shears. For those with an unhealthy boy scout fixation.
